WATER NOTICES.

WATER NOTICE.

DIVERSION AND USE.

TAKE NOTICE that The Keremeos Irrigation District, whose address is Keremeos, B.C., will apply for a Class C licence to take and use 28 cubic feet per second of water out of Ashnola River, which flows northerly and drains into Similkameen River about 7 miles above Keremeos, B.C.

The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about 1 mile from the southern end of the bridge over the Similkameen River at Ashnola, and will be used for irrigation purposes upon the lands within the territorial limits of the Keremeos Irrigation District, as published in the B.C. Gazette under date of June 12th, 1930.

The said water will be used during the months of October and November for fall irrigation and during the months of February and March for spring irrigation.

The petition for the approval of the undertaking as per section 26 of the "Water Act" will be heard in the office of the Water Board at a date to be fixed by the Water Comptroller, and any person interested may file an objection thereto in the office of the Comptroller or of the Water Recorder of the district.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 12th day of August, 1931.

A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act" will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Princeton, B.C.

Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 12538.

NOTICE is hereby given that "McKenzie & Fraser, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 7th day of August, 1931.

The authorized capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty shares.

The address of its registered office is 752 Columbia Street, New Westminster, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To purchase and take over as a going concern the business now being carried on by D. K. McKenzie and D. G. Fraser, situate at No. 752 and No. 603 Columbia Street, City of New Westminster, Province of British Columbia (being fruit, candy, tobacco (retail and wholesale), and lunch-counter, store, billiard and pool rooms); and to acquire all the stock on hand, machinery, equipment, store furniture and fixtures, book debts, cash on hand and at bank, good-will, and all other assets of whatsoever nature, and to assume all liabilities, including accounts payable, bank loan (if any), contracts or undertakings, and all other liabilities of whatsoever nature relating to the aforementioned stores; and to pay for such business either in cash or shares, or partly in cash and partly in shares, as may be determined:

(2.) To carry on a business as candy and chocolate manufacturers and agents, and to manufacture soft drinks, such as lemonade, soda-water, ginger ale, and all other soft drinks of whatsoever nature; to operate lunch-counter, restaurant, purveyors, general caterers of light refreshments of all kinds; to operate pool-room, billiards, and bowling-alleys, skating-rinks, and other forms of games or entertainment which can be carried on legally in connection with the business; to buy and sell tobaccos, cigars, cigarettes, and all other goods of such nature, either wholesale or retail; and to handle all other goods, wholesale or retail, of a like nature which may be handled to the general benefit of the Company:

(3.) To act as factors and agents for any person, persons, or corporation dealing in the materials and products above mentioned or any of them:

(4.) To purchase or acquire in any way whatsoever real estate or any interest therein or arising therefrom, and to sell, lease, exchange, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(5.) To buy, sell, manufacture, let or hire, export, and deal in all kinds of articles and things which may be required for the purpose of any of the businesses hereinbefore mentioned, or commonly supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in such business, or which may be capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the said businesses:

(6.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the consideration or purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered or other valuable consideration:

(7.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, patents, licences, brevets d'invention, concessions, contracts, agencies, or any other rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(8.) To lend money on any terms that may be thought fit, and particularly to customers, shareholders, or directors of this Company, or other persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the contracts or engagements of any such persons:

(9.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof in such manner and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares (fully or partly paid up), debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company, whether promoted by this Company for the purpose or not, and to improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(10.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees, or otherwise:

(11.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or any other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that "Norfolk House School, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 25th day of August, 1931.

The authorized capital of the Company is seventy-five thousand dollars, divided into five hundred preference shares of one hundred dollars each and two hundred and fifty common shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 918 Government Street, Victoria, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the day and boarding school now carried on in the County of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, under the style or firm of "Norfolk House," and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the proprietor of that school in connection therewith, and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement with Dora W. Atkins referred to in clause 4 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(2.) To carry on in the County of Victoria aforesaid, or elsewhere in the said Province, the said school and any other day and (or) boarding-school where students may obtain a sound classical, scientific, mathematical, and general education of the highest order, and for such purpose to adapt and use the said school or any lands, buildings, and premises that may be requisite:

(3.) To establish, build, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to adapt, alter, improve, equip, furnish, maintain and manage, residential houses, boarding-houses, laboratories, lecture and demonstration rooms and halls, class-rooms, libraries, and reading or recreation rooms, gymnasium, tennis-courts, racquets and fives courts, athletic grounds, playing-fields, and all such other establishments, accessories, and premises as may be considered necessary or suitable for or incidental to any such school:

(4.) To provide courses of instruction in all branches of a liberal education, including morals, ethics, and religion, and to arrange for the delivery and holding of lectures, exhibitions, classes, and conferences calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the cause of education, or conduce to the welfare of the students attending such school:

(5.) To enter into an agreement or arrangement with any Board of School Trustees, or any City or Municipal Council, or Provincial Department of Education, or any university or other body in charge of or concerned in any branch of public education in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, whereby the Company may undertake the conduct of any part of the educational work for the time being carried on by such body or authority upon such terms as may from time to time be decided:

(6.) To provide for the examination from time to time of any such students by approved examiners or examining bodies; to give certificates to successful candidates, and to present such scholarships, prizes, and pecuniary or other awards as shall facilitate or encourage proficiency in the subjects taught or courses provided, as well as industry and good behaviour:

(7.) To make and enforce all such general rules, orders, and regulations as may be necessary or proper to maintain discipline and carry on effectually the work of such school:

(8.) To determine and exact such tuition fees, rates, and charges for board and other services provided as the directors of the Company may think fit to impose:

(9.) To promote and carry on a girl-guides' troop or organization for physical training, and all such summer and winter sports or pastimes as may be deemed suitable; and to arrange competitions, games, and sports of any (or all) kind; to grant or contribute towards prizes, awards, and distinctions in connection therewith, and to do or provide for all acts and things necessary for and incidental to the proper care and management of the same:

(10.) To purchase, hire, or otherwise acquire books, periodicals, stationery, scientific and other instruments and apparatus, and generally all such educational, athletic, and other supplies and equipment necessary or suitable for any such school, and to utilize, sell, turn to account, let out on hire, or otherwise deal with or dispose of same:

(11.) To engage masters, tutors, managers, and agents:

(12.) To effect such insurance in relation to the carrying on of the Company's business, and any risks incidental thereto as may seem expedient, and to insure the lives of any of its managers, directors, or employees for the Company's own benefit:

(13.) To purchase, acquire and deal in goods, wares, merchandise, and chattels of whatever nature including all kinds of stores and provisions required by teachers, students, and employees attending such school or residing therein, and to sell or dispose of or distribute the same or any part thereof to or among the members of the Company or any persons or bodies corporate:

(14.) To adopt such means of making known any such school as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, and by publication of papers or periodicals:

(15.) To do all such things as the Company may think incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(9.) To act as agents for any person, firm, company, or corporation; to act as manufacturers and sales agents, and to carry on a general agency business, and also as agents and commission and brokerage business in all its branches:

(10.) To develop and improve lands and use the productiveness thereof for agricultural, horticultural, and grazing purposes; to supply seeds; to manufacture and otherwise produce, purchase, and otherwise acquire, sell, supply, and deal in implements, appliances, fertilizers, and other articles and things required, used, or necessary for the proper and successful cultivation of the soil, and to provide arrangements and facilities for the purchase, sale, transportation, and storage of the products of the soil and of any of the articles and things above mentioned:

(11.) To carry on the business of dealers and traders in live stock (which term shall include horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, and other useful and merchantable animals and poultry) and the business of farmers, live-stock ranchers, and also the business of buying, selling, and trafficking in live stock by auction or otherwise:

(12.) To carry on the business of proprietors or lessees of docks, wharves, jetties, piers, warehouses, cold-storage and refrigeration plants, and of wharfingers and warehousemen:

(13.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of lumber and woodenware, and to buy, own, hold, sell, and deal in timber limits, timber lands, and logs, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture articles in the making of which timber or wood is required or can be utilized:

(14.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of or otherwise turn to account, letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, subject to royalty or otherwise, and whether exclusive or non-exclusive or limited, or any part interest in such letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, whether in the Dominion of Canada or in any other part of the world, and to manufacture and produce, trade and deal in all machinery, plant, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any such brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges as aforesaid:

(15.) To advance money to any person or persons or corporation, either at interest or without, upon the security of freehold or leasehold estate by way of mortgage or upon any marketable security:

(16.) To acquire the good-will of any business and to acquire or undertake the sale of all or any of the assets and liabilities of any such business, and take over as a going concern the business in connection therewith:

(17.) To promote or form or assist in the promotion or formation of any companies, businesses, or undertakings having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company, or for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with any property of the Company or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose, with power generally to assist such companies' businesses or undertakings, and in particular by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses thereof, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or disposing of shares therein, or by lending money thereto, upon debentures or otherwise, and further to pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses attending the issue of any prospectus, circular, or notice connected with this or any other company:

(18.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stock, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any municipal, public, or local board or authority; provided always that the funds of this Company shall not be employed in purchasing or acquiring its own shares, or in loans upon the security thereof:

(19.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, securities under the "Bank Act," bonds, debentures, mortgages, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities of every nature and kind whatsoever:

(20.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-money, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, effects, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(21.) Generally to carry on any other business, except the business of banking, the construction and operation of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, or the business of a trust company, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company. And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the Company:

(22.) To apply for in the name of the Company or other corporation or person, promote, support, and obtain, in Canada or elsewhere in the world, from any Government or other authority, any Act of Parliament, charter, provincial or other order, concessions, grants from the Government, or authorization for enabling the Company or any other corporation or person to carry into effect any of the objects of the Company, or for effecting any modification in the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any Bills, orders, proceedings, or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company.
